

There are no translations available.

Dear friends and lovers of Bulgarian folklore,

We invite you to celebrate the first anniversary of the Bulgarian folk dance group in San Diego!

Come to dance and have fun together on:

October 29 (Saturday) at 6:30 pm

Dance Unlimited

4569 30th St, San Diego, CA 92116

Admission: $10/person, 18 and younger: free

Our guest of honor will be the choreographer Ivan Dimitrov from Washington, DC. He is a great teacher, choreographer and performer. His ensemble has participated in performances with the Kennedy Center in Washington, DC and Slavi Trifonov's show in Bulgaria. You can find more information about Ivan Dimitrov at www.ivandance.com

Everyone is welcome to dress in a Halloween costume. You can also bring something for our potluck party dinner.

Money from the event will help pay the room rent and the teacher's fee, as well as support the work and activities of the Foundation for Education and Culture "Vasil Levski" in San Diego.

Bulgarian folklore group
Foundation for Education and Culture
"Vassil Levski", San Diego